

DUNCAN MINTO IS APPOINTED CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER OF THE ALPINE BRAND

10/10/2023

- Duncan Minto has been appointed Chief Financial Officer of Alpine, with effect from 1 October 2023.
- He joins the Alpine Management Committee and will report directly to Philippe Krief, Alpine CEO, and Thierry Piéton, Renault Group Chief Financial Officer.

With over 25 years of experience within the Renault Group, Duncan Minto joins Alpine as Chief Financial Officer to assist with the brand's ambitious strategy, international development and expansion of the range with seven new electric vehicles by 2030. He also becomes a member of the brand's management committee, and reports to Philippe Krief, Alpine CEO.

"We are delighted to welcome Duncan Minto to the Alpine Management Committee and as Chief Financial Officer within the team. His strong experience within the Renault Group and the success of his projects at key moments for the Group will be huge assets for the development of Alpine," says Philippe Krief, Alpine CEO.

A graduate of the University of St Andrews in Scotland, Duncan Minto joined Renault Group in 1997. After holding several positions in finance, he became Chief Financial Officer of Renault-Nissan Portugal in 2006 before becoming Asia-Pacific Chief Financial Officer of Renault Group.

He was promoted to Director of Financial Planning and Analysis at Renault Group in 2017. He then became Dacia CFO in 2022 before joining Alpine in 2023. He succeeds Joana de Epalza, who has decided to leave the Group to pursue personal projects.

ABOUT ALPINE

Founded in 1955 by Jean Rédélé, the brand has set itself apart with its French-style sports cars. In 2018, the brand presented the new A110, a sports car faithful to Alpine's timeless principles of compactness, lightness, agility and driving pleasure. The Alpine Business Unit was created in 2021 and thus became the brand dedicated to innovative, authentic, exclusive sportscars of the Renault Group, benefiting from the heritage and craftsmanship of its historic plant in Dieppe and the Alpine Racing and Alpine Cars teams engineering mastery.
